ABOUT FLOWERHILL EQUESTRIAN

Located on 250- acres in the beautiful east Galway countryside, Flowerhill Equestrian Centre offers the best cross-country riding terrain and environment in the region: green fields, woodlands, the Kilcrow River and wonderful wildlife. Gallop across open fields, swim through the lakes and splash in the rivers!

The cross-country jumps at Flowerhill include a mixture of natural logs, stone walls, ditches and a wide variety of man-made obstacles. Most of the 150 obstacles include 2 or more jumping options; catering to a nervous novice or a confident competitor.

ABOUT THE HORSES & OWNER

Flowerhill offers over 45 active working horses; a cross between the solid and sensible Irish Draught and the Irish Thoroughbred. The result? A sport horse with great jumping ability, common sense and courage! All of the horses are cross-country and hunting veterans take great care of their riders. The staff at Flowerhill takes particular care to matching rider with the horse best suited to them. This ensures everyone feels safe and comfortable while having a great time during stay at Flowerhill.

Oliver Walsh is a former field master with the East Galway Hunt and retired Huntsman (after 20 seasons) with the Roscommon Hunt. Oliver accompanies most of the ride outs and always provides words of encouragement and advice along the way!

HOW TO GET HERE

Flowerhill is located in East Galway in the west of Ireland - about 2 hours from the Dublin Airport.

Flowerhill can be reach by bus and we will arrange bus station pickup or self-driving. Alternatively, we can arrange private airport transfers.

RIDING ABILITY
